

Heather Lundahl, Director of Bands
Walker Middle Magnet

Pass-off Highlights

- ❖ It's a great motivator for beginners!
- ❖ Creates excitement.
- ❖ Students are encouraged to move at their own pace.
- ❖ Students are rewarded immediately for practicing.
- ❖ Music performance works towards perfection — “pass-off” encourages this from the very first day.
- ❖ Opportunity for individual feedback, mini lessons every day, hear each student 2-3 times and day, correcting bad habits before they form!
- ❖ Student is used to playing alone from day one, developing characteristic sound and stage presence.
- ❖ Element of competition serves as a motivator, students have goals to work towards every day — they should never be bored.
- ❖ Develops soloistic skills, individual techniques, confidence.
- ❖ Success is rewarded, and students are engaged continuously no matter their level.
- ❖ Discipline issues cease to exist because of engagement level.
- ❖ Fun and entertaining.
- ❖ Endless array of games and twists to keep learning exciting!
- ❖ ET's (extra turns) allow for mistakes and second chances.
- ❖ Simple yet effective and authentic form of assessment.
- ❖ Students and parents can easily see progress in the book because of the dates listed.